 This document relates to:
Simon Nitinol Filter Cases

In accordance with the Court's direction from the telephonic conference held on July 2, 2019, Docket Number 19071, Nicole Maldonado, counsel for two of the Simon Nitinol Filter ("SNF") cases (Valentine, Case No. 17-cv-0579, and Salmon, Case No. 17-cv-2866), hereby submits an update to her Status Report filed on July 1, 2019, regarding the SNF cases currently filed so that a determination can be made on the best way to proceed on these cases, whether it be remand or proceed with the MDL.

Since the last Status Report, Ms. Maldonado has received several updates from plaintiffs' firms that have SNF cases, as well as from the defense. To date, apart from a few firms that have not yet responded, only fourteen (14) SNF cases have not settled or been part of settlement talks. Those cases are outlined for the Court below. Some of those 14 may be part of settlement talks, but it is not entirely clear. Nonetheless, it appears that all but 14 or so cases have settled or are in the process of settling.

Please see the table, below, with highlights representing updates.

It appears that an MDL is probably unnecessary at this time due to the very low number of SNF cases that are not being negotiated. Should the Court continue to seek updates regarding the status of those SNF cases that are currently being negotiated, Ms. Maldonado is available to continue to submit updates for the Court.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 15th day of July, 2019.
